

What is the Educational Developers Caucus?

The Educational Developers Caucus is a community of engaged educators, students, and professionals who contribute to and advance educational development as a field of practice and scholarship in Canada and beyond.

EDC is an affiliated group of RFPEs est un groupe affilié de

Join STLHE and EDC

Your EDC membership connects you to an engaged community of professional peers and also offers you a number of individual benefits.

EDC is a constituent group within the Society for Teaching and Learning in Higher Education (STLHE). New members join both STLHE and EDC, and current members of STLHE may join EDC for a small additional fee.

Student

$60

($35 STLHE + $25 EDC)

Available to all students who are currently enrolled.

Professional

$175

($125 STLHE + $50 EDC)

Membership Advantages

As an EDC member, you can:

- Attend conferences at member rates
- Join Action Groups and Communities of Practice
- Access funding, including the EDC Grants and the Educational Developer Grants for Exchanges (EDGEs)
- Receive awards recognizing significant contributions to educational development in Canada
- Obtain accreditation of your professional development programs

EDC + RFPEs

Educational Developers Caucus
Le Réseau de formateurs en pédagogie de l'enseignement supérieur

edc.stlthe.ca

@EDC_RFPEs

WELCOME TO THE EDC

Learn About ED With Your EDC Community

- Action Groups
- Communities of Practice
- Webinars

on topics such as indigenization, ethics, and curriculum

Educational Development Guides

Creative Commons licensed, these applied resources further evidence-informed, reflective practice in educational development.

- ED Guide No. 1. The Educational Developer's Portfolio
- ED Guide No. 2. Rapport-Building for Educational Developers
- ED Guide No. 3. Centre Reviews: Strategies for Success

Listserv

Members and non-members use the EDC listserv to connect with colleagues. The EDC listserv is used to:

- Exchange ideas
- Distribute conference and publication CFPs
- Share resources
- Request feedback or input
- Disseminate job postings

EDC Events

February Conference

Annual two-day conference of concurrent sessions and keynotes, and accompanying pre-conference day. Location varies across Canada.

Institute

The EDC Institute is an intensive professional development experience designed to facilitate learning and networking in a supportive, collegial environment.

Webinars

Designed to engage EDC members from wherever they are located, these workshops are an immersive and engaging professional development opportunity where members dive deeply into a particular area of knowledge and/or work on developing a particular skill. Webinars include online interactive workshops and discussion-based sessions.

Funding

EDC Grants

Up to $3000 for projects that inform and expand ED practices, including original research and resource development.

ED Grants for Exchanges (EDGEs)

Up to $2000 for exchanges that support the development of strong, meaningful professional networks.

Bursaries

Financial assistance is available for students and early-career EDs to support participation in EDC Conferences and Institutes.

Awards

Professional leadership and sustained contributions to the field of educational development are honoured through the Distinguished Educational Development Career Award and the Educational Developer Leadership Award.